For an up-close view of sea life, visit the state-of-the-art AQUARIUM OF THE AMERICAS located at the foot of Canal Street. Explore the aquatic worlds of the Caribbean, Amazon Rainforest, Gulf of Mexico and Mississippi Delta. Admission is $8 for adults, $6.25 for senior citizens and $4.25 for children under 12.

The LOUISIANA NATURE AND SCIENCE CENTER, located at 11000 Lake Forest Boulevard, is another place to explore the great Louisiana outdoors. Take a walk through Louisiana in just a few hours for just $3 for adults and $1 for kids. Call 241-9606 for more information.

This article was specially written by Honey Naylor, regular contributor to Fodor's Travel Guides and many other popular travel publications, to help you become quickly acquainted with New Orleans. The material may not be reproduced without permission of the Greater New Orleans Tourist & Convention Commission's Public Relations Department, and full credit must be given to the author. 6/91

GLOSSARY
Continued fm page7

FAIS DO-DO (Literally "go to sleep") A Country dance, in Cajun country including the entire family from grandpere to the tiniest baby. "Do-do" derives from the childish expression, a variation of "dormir" (to sleep).

GRIS-GRIS (Gree-gree, African variation of French meaning gray-gray) Amulet, talisman or charm, worn for luck or used to conjure evil on enemies of Voodoo devotees.

VOODOO (Dahomey, vodu, a deity) An African cult, once an animistic religion subject to many variations, good and bad, imported to New Orleans by African slaves.

PRALINE (From Marechal duPlessis Praslin, whose cook invented it) A sweet bon-bon made of pecans browned in sugar. Pronounced: Praw-leen.

This article was specially written by Mel Leavitt, dean of New Orleans' television news commentators and leading author-historian, to help you become quickly acquainted with New Orleans. The material may not be reproduced without permission of the Greater New Orleans Tourist & Convention Commission's Public Relations Department, and full credit must be given to the author. 4/91