Pre-Flight To Celebrate Anniversary

The Chapel Hill Navy Pre-Flight School will celebrate its first anniversary on Sunday with a program starting at two p.m. in Kenan Stadium, followed by a baseball game at Emerson Field.

President Frank P. Graham will deliver the principal address, and the entire Pre-Flight corps will pass in review. The ceremonies will be highlighted by the decoration of an Aviation Cadet for gallantry under fire during the recent attack on Casablanca. The well-known Navy Pre-Flight band will perform during the proceedings.

Faculty, students, and the general public are invited to attend and during the program will occupy the seats on the north side of the stadium.

With the conclusion of the program at Kenan Stadium the Pre-Flight baseball nine will face the 508th Parachute Infantry team from Camp MacKall. American League batting champion Ted Williams will not play the full game, but will be in the dugout for use as a pinch hitter.
