Pvt. J. A. Tomaseski Killed In Belgium

Young Paratrooper Gives Life For Country In Battle On January 7

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Tomaseski, of 1108 South Jefferson street, received a telegram from the War Department, stating that their son, Pvt. John A. Tomaseski, aged 21 years, has been killed in action, January 7, somewhere in Belgium.

Pvt. Tomaseski was attached to the paratroops, and had previously been transferred from the signal corps.

He has been in service of the armed forces since April 2, 1943, and received his basic training in Camp Crowder, Mo. In September 1943 he arrived home on furlough and went overseas, where he had been for over a year.

A step-brother, Pvt. Chester Sowinski, is stationed in Belgium.
