

Two ready Troopers in Wollaton Park.

507 & 508 MP's. 1st Lt. Carlson - Major Zakoby - 1
Mc Enery

MP's - Sgt. Kelley 507 & T/4 Cole 508.

A hedgerow in Normandy - June 1944

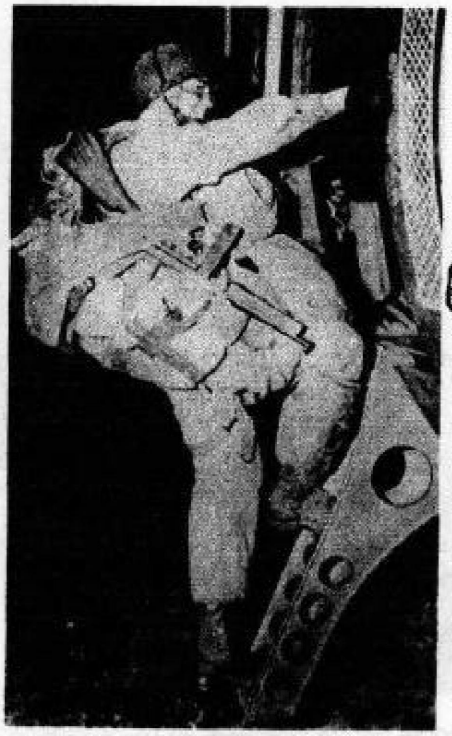

CHEERS YANK.

Nottingham Pub.

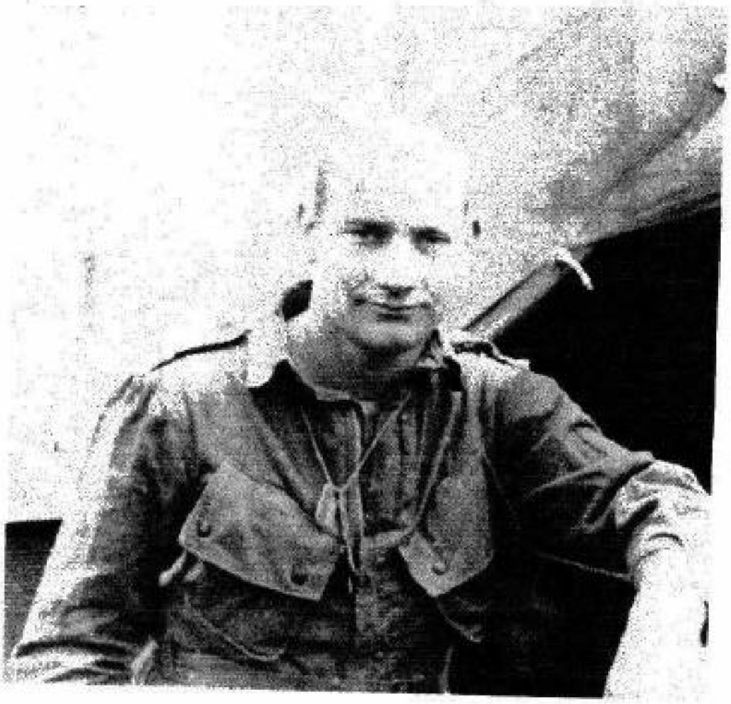

Typical American Paratrooper.

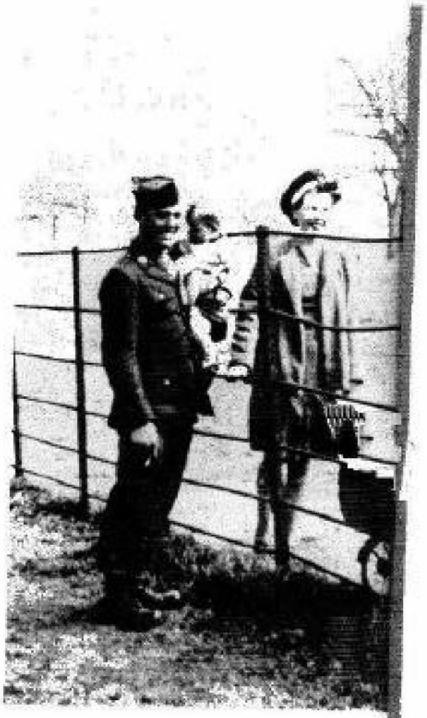

English Pub - The Cocked Hat in Broxtowe. Celebrating the return of a 508 man from Normandy.

F Company Trooper before Normandy at Wollaton Park

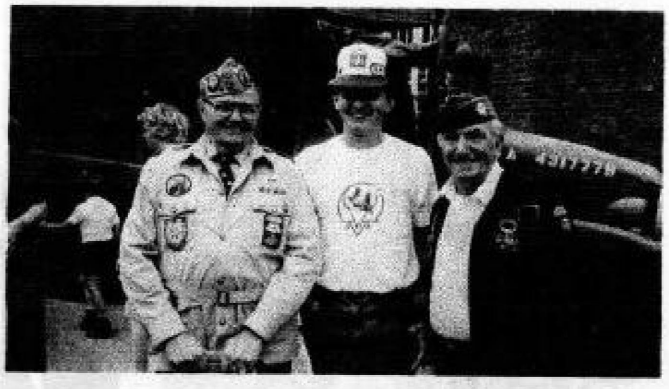

Tom Porcella kissing babes at Wollaton Park.

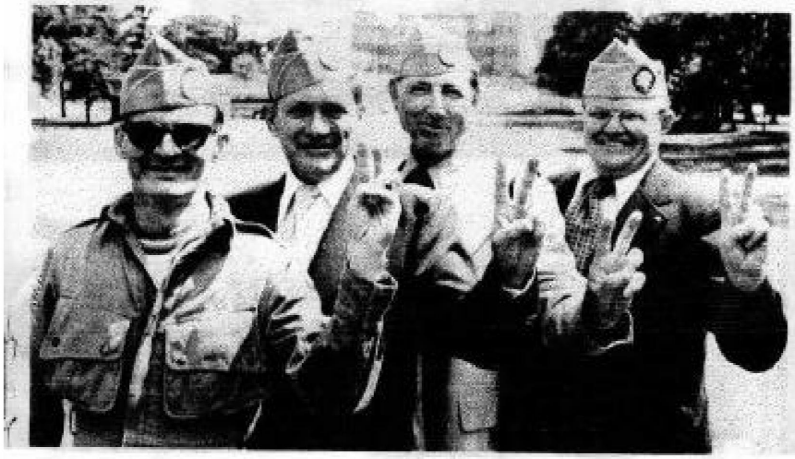

An "Always Ready Trooper" in tent city. Wollaton Park

O. B. Hill & Tom Porcella with a young British friend. June 1974

June 1974 - Zane Schlemmer Hq. 2nd, Bill Goudy Hq. 1st, Brodie Hand, C Company & O. B. Hill Hq. 1st Return to Wollaton.

Part of the 508 museum in Wollaton Hall, Nottingham.

The Pike Family with a friend at the 508 monument in Chef du Pont, France.

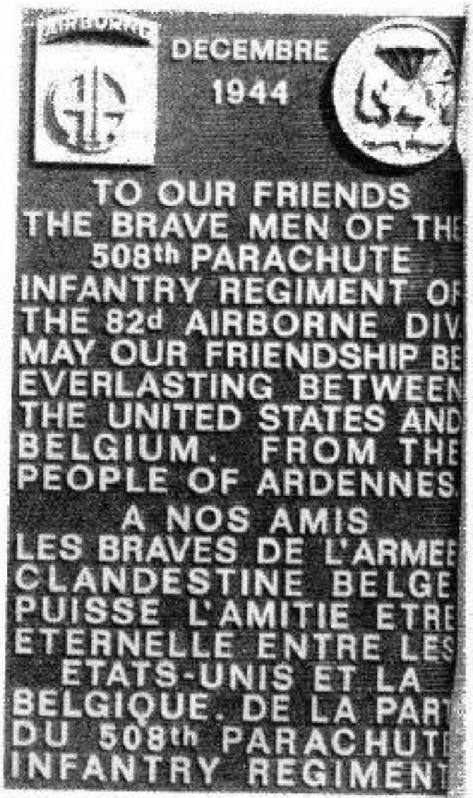

French children placing flowers at the 508 monument in Chef du pont, France.

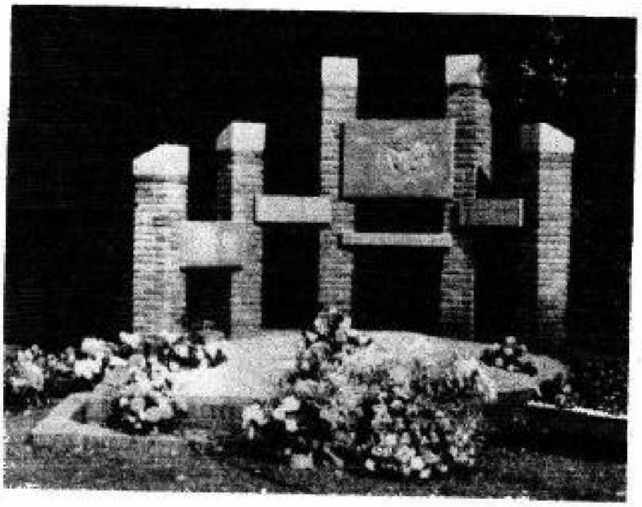

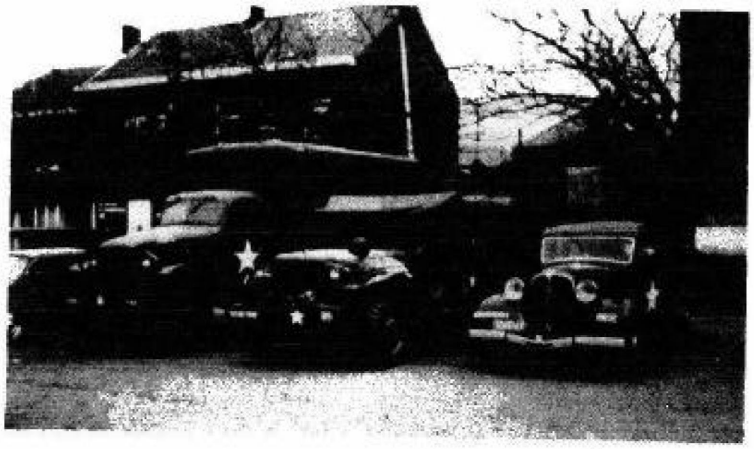

O. B. Hill, Mayor Martin and General Jim Gavin at the 508 monument in Chef du Pont, France.

Words from the 508 monument in Belgium

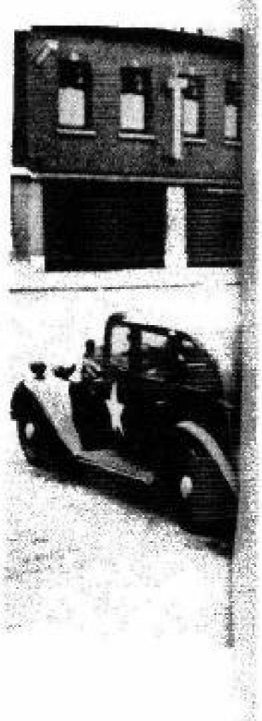

Liberation monument honoring the 508 in Beek, Holland.

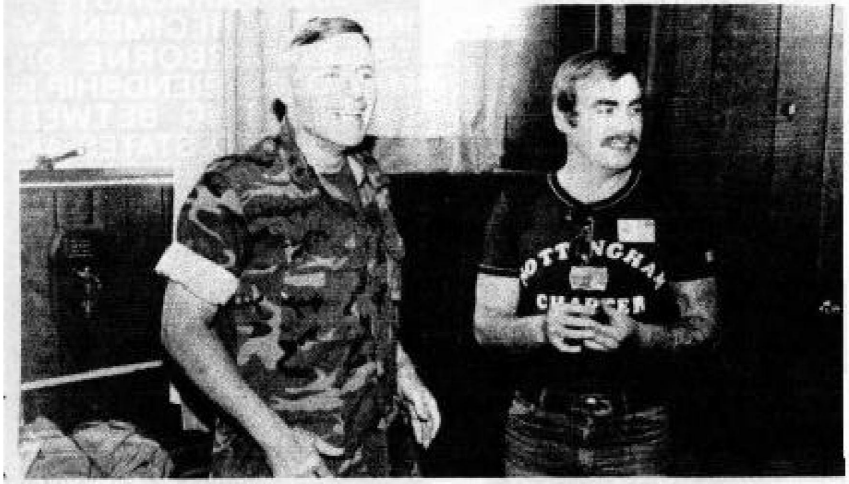

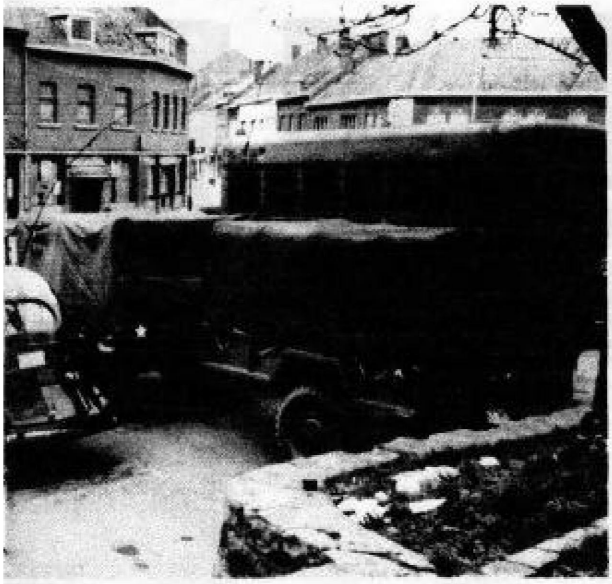

Part of the Belgian fleet of WWII vehicles.

n 82n

General Meloy presenting David Pike with an 82nd Division coin at Ft. Bragg, N.C.

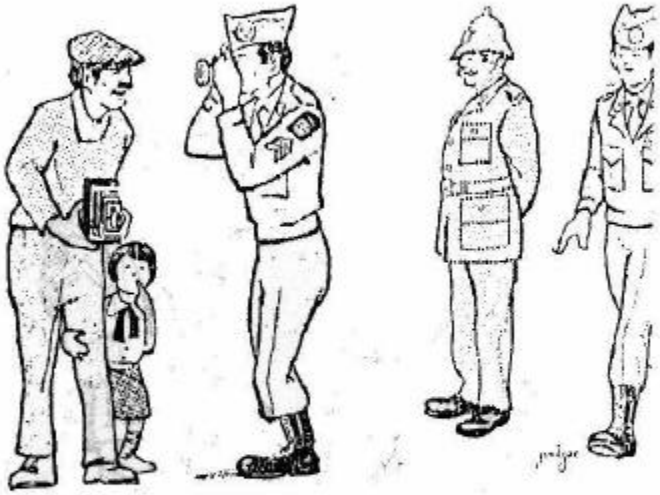

Street scene

Street Scene

asking directions

RETURNING TO NOTTINGHAM FROM NORMAND

Any gum chum

Fancy a game of darts mate?

A special THANK YOU to Tom Gintjee, Hq. 1st, for the design on the book cover and for the sketches showing his memories of time served in Nottingham. You are a very special kind of Trooper.