SOLDIER'S BODY ARRIVES IN U. S.

Family Informed Body of Pfc. Robert D. Lowrie is Now in Philadelphia.

The body of Pfc. Robert Duane Lowrie, who was killed in action in Belgium in the famous Battle of the Bulge on Jan. 7, 1945, has arrived in Philadelphia from Europe and will be brought to Franklin for interment, according to a telegram received Friday afternoon by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Adelmer B. Lowrie, 46 McKinley Street, Oak Hill.

The funeral director, L. L. Burger, will be informed by the Quartermaster Depot, American Graves Registration Division, Philadelphia, when the body will be shipped from Philadelphia and when it can be expected to arrive in Franklin.

Mr. Burger said that arrangements were being made to accord the young soldier full military honors in the funeral services to be held in the Burger Funeral Home. The American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars will have charge of the military rites in the service.

Pfc. Lowrie entered service on May 31, 1943, a week after his graduation from Franklin High School. He received his basic training at Camp Campbell, Ky., and was sent over seas in June, 1944.

He was a paratrooper with Company C. 82nd Airborne Division.

Pfc. Lowrie was born in Franklin on Aug. 31, 1924, and was 20 years of age when he was killed. A son of Adelmer B. and Bessie Green Lowrie, the young soldier is survived by the following brothers and sisters: Wesley N. Lowrie, Adelmer, Jr., Mrs. David Long and Mrs. W. C. Cunningham, Franklin; Harold E., Joseph A. and Grace E. Lowrie, at home, and Paul A. Lowrie, serving in the U. S. Marine Corps at Camp Lejeune, N. C.
