Tiarks Services Sunday

The remains of the late Pfc. Werner Clarence Tiarks, veteran of World war II, will arrive at Almond on Friday evening.

Private services at the Hardell funeral home will be held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Public military committal rites will follow in the Lutheran cemetery, east of Almond village.

A memorial service for the late World war veteran was held last year. The young man is survived by his father and step-mother, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Tiarks of Almond, and several brothers and sisters.
