Services for Private Tiarks

Military honors were accorded by the American Legion at the Almond Lutheran cemetery on Sunday afternoon when Pfc. Werner C. Tiarks was buried. The body was brought to New York a few weeks ago and arrived at Almond Friday evening, accompanied by a military escort, Sergeant Fanell.

Pallbearers were Raymond Boelter, Almond, Earl Barker, Plainfield, Hugo Carpenter, Stevens Point, Allen Hilgendorft, Wautoma, Clifford Johnson and William Lemke, classmates and friends of the young man. Private Tiarks, a paratrooper during World war II, was a son of Herman Tiarks of Almond.

Members of the family who came for the private service and burial included: Mrs. Arthur Hilgendorf of Donovan, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Tiarks and Victor Tiarks of Beaverville, Ill.; Mrs. Ernest Frounfelker, Jeanette and Clarence of Waukegan, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. Onnie Frandy of Bessemer, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Woodward, Lorine, James, Alice and Elaine Woodward of Arpin; Walter Tiarks, Raymond Tiarks, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Tiarks, Robert and Gretchen Mr. and Mrs. Wilbert Tiarks, David and Janis, and Maynard Hilgendorf, all of Milwaukee; Mr. and Mrs. Christ Luhn and Mary of Winneconne.

Rev. E. Wendling, pastor of St. John's Lutheran church, was the officiant.

SPDJ 11 May 1948